

Derion S. Hall

Associate | New Orleans

Derion is an associate in the Affordable Housing, and Community Development practice areas of Longwell Riess.

Derion represents clients in tax-advantaged and government incentive finance transactions, including affordable housing, new markets tax credits, historic tax credits and government lending programs. Her experience includes representation of for profit and nonprofit corporations, developers, community development entities, lenders and government entities. She also assists clients with real estate and corporate matters, including donations, purchase and sale transactions, entity formation, operating documents and equity investments.

Derion graduated in the top 1% of her class at Southern University Law Center, where she served as the senior editor of the Southern University Law Review.

Direct: 504.882.6951

Fax: 504.387.6386

dhall@longwellriess.com

Longwell Riess, L.L.C.

650 Poydras Street, Suite 2600

New Orleans, Louisiana 70130

Education

- J.D., 2022, from Southern University Law Center – Baton Rouge, LA
 - Senior Editor, Southern University Law Review
 - Rank: 2/147 (Top 1% of Class)
- B.A., Summa Cum Laude, 2019, Sociology with a concentration in Criminology, Minor in Social Work, from Louisiana State University – Baton Rouge, LA

Bar Admissions

- Louisiana, 2022